

Frequently Asked Questions...

on sending your child to a sahaj school

We went to each school individually and asked the principals some questions which many parents have when considering sending their child to a sahaj school. Here are their answers; We hope you find them enlightening!

1. What is the process for your school to accept new students?

Vienna Kindergarten: The first thing the parents must do is put their child on the waiting list. We have two groups with 14 children in each group. The first group is for children 1.5-3 years old and the second group is for 3.5-6 years old...

\(read Vienna's FAQ\)

2. As a parent, How do I know if my child is ready to attend your school?

Canajoharie School: The child should have a pure desire to attend the school, as well as the parent(s) should have the pure desire to send their child to the school...

\(read Canajoharie's FAQ\)

3. What are the common qualities of children which thrive in these sahaj school environments?

DEVI School: Students who thrive at the DEVI School are those who are already meditating, who understand the value of their chastity and the brother/sister relationship, and are keen to deepen their relationship with the Divine...

\(read DEVI's FAQ\)

4. What measures do you have in place for the children to smoothly transition between sahaj schools? Do you have any measures in place to help them transition to a non-sahaj school?

Borotin Kindergarten: By the time the children are preparing to leave us and go off to cabella school, or their own school back in their country, we like to see that the children have become more independent...

\(read Borotin's FAQ\)

5. What support does the school feel the parents should give to the school?

Cabella School: When we connect with the families, we feel we are a team supporting the child together...

\(read CISS' FAQ\)